PRESS RELEASE IMMEDIATE RELEASE...

PENDING PAROLE HEARING KATHERINE BUNNELL ALLIANCE WEIGHS IN....

Katherine Bunnell faces a Parole Board scheduled for some time in November 2024. The toddler TJ Wright who was only 3 years old fell victim to the beating that contributed to his death by Ms. Bunnell. The case of 3-year-old TJ Wright spanned the terms of 2 Governors and served as the backdrop of a lawsuit against the Governor and Department of Children, Youth and Families in 2007. TJ's case was looked upon as the worst scenario of failure regarding the Departments shortcomings.

The brutal, heinous, and depraved acts of violence Katherine Bunnell committed against TJ were unthinkable and unspeakable. Katherine Bunnell was given a "Life Sentence". The Alliance for Safe Communities submits the following recommendations to uphold that decision and deny Ms. Bunnell release at this pending parole hearing.

We request our media to cover this pending parole hearing and recognize the serious nature of the crime that was committed and landmark changes and results that arose from it happening in our state.
